

IN THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS OF TEXAS

NO. PD-1319-19

CARLOS LOZANO, Appellant

v.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

ORDER REGARDING REPRESENTATION EL PASO COUNTY

Per curiam.

ORDER

Appellant was convicted of murder in cause number 20160D00209 in the 384th District Court of El Paso County. Appellant was sentenced to confinement for 25 years. The court of appeals reversed and remanded the case to the trial court for a new trial. Lozano v. State, No. 08-17-00251-CR (Tex. App. — El Paso, delivered October 31, 2019). The State's petition for discretionary review was granted by this Court on May 6, 2020. Appellant is entitled to representation before this Court at this time. See Article 1.051(a)(d)(2), V.A.C.C.P. Appellant is without representation in this Court. Accordingly, the trial court is ordered to determine if Appellant is currently represented by counsel, and if so, to inform this court who represents Appellant. If Appellant is not currently represented by counsel and desires counsel, the trial court must first determine whether Appellant is indigent. If the trial court finds Appellant is indigent, that court shall appoint an attorney to represent Appellant before this court in regard to PDR No. PD-1319-19, in accord with the provisions of Articles 1.051 and 26.04, V.A.C.C.P. Any hearing conducted pursuant to this order shall be held within 20 days of the date of this order. The trial court's order appointing counsel, any findings of fact, affidavits, or transcription of the court reporter's notes and any other supplementation of the record shall be returned to this court within 30 days of the date of this order.

IT IS SO ORDERED THIS THE 29TH DAY OF JUNE, 2020
